

XXV World Congress of Philosophy Philosophy across Boundaries

LEIBNIZ'S THOUGHT ACROSS AND BEYOND BORDERS

The panel will consider the relation between Leibniz's philosophical perspectives and the 'across-borders' dimension of philosophy that the Congress theme proposes. Who among the philosophers can better embody the overcoming of borders? Leibniz is the first philosopher with a global outlook. Can his thought confront, and be confronted with, the borderless challenges of our time?

Rome, August 6, 3:00 - 7:00 PM
Università di Roma La Sapienza
Building CU0005, Room 12

Margherita Palumbo (Italy, Sodalitas Leibnitiana)

Greetings, Short introduction

Enrico Pasini (Italy, Università di Torino, CNR-ILIESI)

Introduction: Borderless challenges for Leibniz's thought and legacy

Wenchao Li / Yue Dan (Germany, G.-W.-Leibniz-Gesellschaft)

Leibniz—Russland—Asien

Luca Basso (Italy, Università di Padova)

Politics between universality and differences

Tahar ben Guiza (Tunisia, Société d'études leibniziennes de langue française)

Leibniz et la philosophie arabe: l'universalité en question

Lena Kreymann (Germany, Humboldt-Universität)

A Blow with Combined Forces: Leibniz on the Collaborative Nature of Science

Juan Antonio Nicolás (Spain, Red Ibero-Americana Leibniz)

Le principe de la place de l'autre comme critère d'interaction avec l'altérité. Vers une éthique de la reconnaissance chez Leibniz

Concha Roldán (Spain, Sociedad Española Leibniz para Estudios del Barroco y la Ilustración)

La paz y la idea de confederaciones según Leibniz

Organised by: Gottfried-Wilhelm-Leibniz-Gesellschaft – Sodalitas Leibnitiana – University of Turin, Department of Philosophy and Education Sciences – CNR-ILIESI